

Charlotte's Web

By E.B. White

Some Pig. Humble. Radiant. These are the words in Charlotte's Web, high up in Zuckerman's barn. Charlotte's spiderweb tells of her feelings for a little pig named Wilbur, who simply wants a friend. They also express the love of a girl named Fern, who saved Wilbur's life when he was born the runt of his litter. E. B. White's Newbery Honor Book is a tender novel of friendship, love, life, and death.

We'll watch the 2006 G movie starring the voices of Julie Roberts, Oprah Winfrey, Robert Redford and others, on Friday evening, August 24 at 6:30.

We'll discuss how this Bible verse applies to this book: I Corinthians 1:27-28 "God chooses the foolish things of the world to shame the wise. He chooses the weak things of the world to shame the strong. And God chooses what the world thinks is not important."

Books and Movies in Pajamas

A book is a magical thing that lets you travel to far-away places without ever leaving your chair. - Katrina Mayer

Summer is always full of adventure! Sometimes, the greatest adventures can happen when we are cuddled up and reading books.

Join us this summer as we take off on our own adventure to far away lands with the help of some really great authors. Each month you can read the selected book at home, alone, or as a family. Then, we will all come together to see the story leap from our imaginations to the movie screen. We will watch the movies together at church, wearing PJs. Bring a snack to share. Bring your favorite "lovey" to wrap in or sit on. Kids must be accompanied by an adult.

Don't have these books? The church office has copies of the books for you to borrow.

Don't have kids? This is for you, too. Everyone loves a heart-warming story!

Selected Friday nights from 6:30 to 8:00

May 25 – Because of Winn Dixie

June 22 – James and the Giant Peach

July 27 – Charlie and the Chocolate Factory

August 24 – Charlotte's Web

Because of Winn Dixie

By Kate DiCamillo

One summer's day, ten-year-old India Opal Buloni goes down to the local supermarket for some groceries – and comes home with a dog. But Winn-Dixie is no ordinary dog. It's because of Winn-Dixie that Opal begins to make friends. And it's because of Winn-Dixie that she finally dares to ask her father about her mother, who left when Opal was three. In fact, as Opal admits, just about everything that happens that summer is because of Winn-Dixie.

We'll watch the 2005 PG movie starring Jeff Daniels, Cicely Tyson, and Dave Matthews on Friday evening, May 25 at 6:30.

We'll discuss how this Bible verse applies to this book: Matthew 22:39 "Love others as much as you love yourself."

James and the Giant Peach

By Roald Dahl

James is an orphaned boy oppressed by two nasty, self-centered aunts. How James escapes his miserable life with the horrible aunts and becomes a hero is a Dahlicious fantasy of the highest order. You will never forget resourceful little James and his new family of magically overgrown insects—a ladybug, a spider, a grasshopper, a glowworm, a silkworm, and the chronic complainer, a centipede with a hundred gorgeous shoes. Their adventures aboard a luscious peach as large as a house take them across the Atlantic Ocean, through waters infested with peach-eating sharks and skies inhabited by malevolent Cloudmen, to a ticker-tape parade in New York City.

We'll watch the 1996 PG movie starring the voices of Richard Dreyfuss, Simon Callow and others, on Friday evening, June 22 at 6:30.

We'll discuss how this Bible verse applies to this book: Proverbs 17:17 "A friend loves at all times."

Charlie and the Chocolate Factory

By Roald Dahl

Willy Wonka's famous chocolate factory is opening at last! But only five lucky children will be allowed inside. And the winners are: Augustus Gloop, a boy whose hobby is eating; Veruca Salt, a spoiled-rotten brat whose parents are wrapped around her little finger; Violet Beauregarde, a dim-witted gum-chewer with the fastest jaws around; Mike Teavee, a gangster-in-training who is obsessed with television; and Charlie Bucket, Our Hero, a boy who is honest and kind, brave and true, and he's good and ready for the wildest time of his life!

We'll watch the 1971 G movie starring Gene Wilder on Friday evening, July 27 at 6:30.

We'll discuss how this Bible verse applies to this book: I Samuel 16:7 "People look at outward appearances, but the Lord looks at a person's heart."
